Farewell, but not adieu ... from Revd Liz

Rev Liz has asked me to pen this note, since she broke her left elbow and right wrist typing is something of a challenge!

Rev Liz has stood down from her parish duties to allow time to support her daughter in the West Country. Rev Liz wants to say how much she has loved ministering to the Benefice of Hambledon, Soberton and Newtown, and the warmth and love she has felt as part of those communities. She says it has been a great privilege to share the happy and sad times together, living out Christ's Kingdom in the beautiful Meon Valley.

A huge thanks to the priests and Lay worship minister and leaders who have ensured that we have all services are covered for the next six months. I know that Rev Sandra, our Priest in Charge, is in conversation with the Diocese to recruit a replacement as soon as we can, and I will be helping and supporting her in that important task.
